

Got your check?

You could be eligible for thousands of dollars by filing taxes!

Even if you earned no money or very little, you could be eligible for a stimulus check or money from other tax credits. It's not too late.

Don't file taxes?

You may still be eligible for thousands of dollars by filing taxes in 2022.

If you earned income or have dependent children you care for, you may be eligible for thousands of dollars through the Earned Income Tax Credit or the Child Tax Credit.

If you received monthly checks from the IRS for the Child Tax Credit, file your 2021 taxes to claim the rest of your credit. If you worked in 2021, you may also be eligible for the expanded Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC).

Even if you don't usually file taxes, file your return in 2022:

- ▶ If you are the parent or primary caregiver for a child you could be eligible for thousands of dollars from the Child Tax Credit and for daycare costs from the Child and Dependent Care Credit.
- ▶ If you didn't receive your stimulus check, you can get it by filing your taxes and claiming the Recovery Rebate Credit.
- ▶ If you worked in 2021, you may be eligible for the expanded Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC), even if you don't claim any children on your return.
- ▶ You can also file 2018, 2019, or 2020 taxes to receive past refunds.
